

From the Carle Herald. RICH AND INTERESTING CORRESPONDENCE.

The following correspondence, which has been furnished us for publication, will sufficiently explain itself to all who read it, and doubtless infinitely amuse them. We give it without comment:

FAIRFIELD, (O.) Aug. 10, 1844.

To His Excellency Gov. RITNER—

Honored Sir: The Democratic Committee of this town have received information that yourself and the Hon. Thomas H. Burrows intend to pay a visit to the Queen of the West some time in this month, and as our village is located on a fair turnpike road from Wheeling to Cincinnati, I am requested, as corresponding secretary, to address a letter of invitation to your honor and the Hon. Thomas H. Burrows, shall it be convenient for you on your route to address a mass meeting at this place on the 24th instant. Should you visit the beautiful West at that time or any subsequent period, understanding by some means that both of you have changed your sentiments since 1840, the true Democracy of the Buckeye State would think themselves highly complimented and honored by seeing such distinguished gentlemen. Should the information prove to be correct, you will confer a favor by informing me in time.

I subscribe myself yours, with the warmest esteem, and am, very respectfully, your obedient servant,
M. B. HILL, P. M.

MOUNT ROCK, August 16, 1844.

Dear Sir: Your favor of the 10th instant is before me, in which you say that the Democratic Committee of your town had received information that the Hon. Thomas H. Burrows and myself intended to visit "the Queen of the West some time this month." You also say that you are requested, as Corresponding Secretary, to invite us to address a mass meeting on the 24th instant, at your place, having understood that both of us have changed our sentiments since 1840. In what follows, I speak only for myself: should you deem it proper to address Mr. Burrows, he will speak for himself. I say then to you, that you have been most grossly deceived as it regards myself. The information you have received is altogether erroneous. I do not intend to visit "the Fair West" this season—neither have I changed my sentiments since 1840, in regard to the great questions involved in the great struggle between the friends of Henry Clay and James K. Polk, for the Presidency.

The political sentiment which I hold, I imbibed in my boyhood, during the administration of Thomas Jefferson. I advocated and defended the same principles during the administrations of Madison and Monroe, when honesty and capacity were deemed essential in a public office. I desire now to see the principles and measures restored, under which the country was happy and prosperous, before the Democratic party was "headed," and lead headlong to destruction, by Van Buren, Benton, Dr. Duncan, Allen, Buchanan, Charles J. Ingersoll, (who "would have been a Tory," had he been old enough, in the American Revolution,) and a host of others might be named, all, with perhaps one exception, opposed to the late war with Great Britain, and who were then Federalists of the true blue-light stamp.

Indeed, the Democratic party, since it has been corrupted by the old Federal leaders, is not more like what that party was in the days of Jefferson, Madison, and Monroe, than Ezekiel Polk, the grandfather of James K. Polk, was like General Francis Marion, in the days of the Revolution. I had occasion some time since to reply to a letter addressed to me by the chairman of the State Central Committee of this State. In that reply I have fully but briefly stated my views in regard to the leading questions now agitating the public. I herewith transmit to you a newspaper containing it; you will have the goodness to read it, in connexion with this letter, at your Mass Meeting on the 24th instant, as it will, I hope, effectually disabuse a large number of the true Democracy of the "Buckeye State;" and show, although on a small scale, how far a prodigal press will go to deceive, when under the direction of the worst passions that can actuate and influence the hearts and minds of bad men.

Permit me to say, in conclusion, that I reciprocate the warm esteem you entertain for me.

I am, most respectfully, your obedient servant,
JOS. RITNER.

To M. B. HILL, Esq., P. M.,
Fairfield county, Ohio.

A STARTLING FACT.—Mr. Clay, in his masterly speech delivered at Raleigh, N. C., mentions the startling fact that "on the single article of American tobacco England loves annually an amount of revenue equal to the whole amount of duties levied annually by the United States upon all the articles of import from all the foreign nations of the world, including England." This is her free trade! And yet the free trade Locofocos would have us beggar our manufacturers, mechanics, and workmen, and impoverish our country, by admitting English and other foreign goods, wares, and merchandise free of duty.—N. Y. Republic.

From the Baltimore Patriot.

MR. EDITOR: Where is Beau Hickman? He was the candidate for Vice, on the Tyler ticket. The head has withdrawn—what becomes of the tail? Does the Beau stand or does he not? Will the Madisonian answer this question, and thus satisfy an enquiring and anxious public?

CORNFIELD.

LYNCH LAW.—The Frontier Whig, published at Van Buren, Arkansas, contains the following:

"By a letter from a friend in Texas, we learn that four murderers and horse thieves were hanged on South Sulphur, Pannin county, Texas. Their names were Jones, Ray, White, and Mitchell, all from Missouri. They have recently robbed and killed four Indians."

REFUSAL TO PERFORM THE BURIAL SERVICE.—There was considerable excitement in the Northern Liberties, Philadelphia, on Saturday, in consequence of the disinterment of a German, a member of the Odd-Fellows' Society, and of the German National Washington Guards. The deceased was buried in the ground attached to the German Catholic Church, corner of Fifth and Franklin streets, on Monday week, but the priest refused to read the burial service, from the fact that he (the deceased) was a member of the Odd-fellows' Society. The friends, taking umbrage at this, had the body taken up on Saturday, and buried in the German Lutheran burial ground, Eighth street, near Race. An immense number of persons were present, including a military company and two Lodges of Odd-Fellows.

GREAT WHIG GATHERING.

There was a glorious meeting of the Whigs of the 13th Congressional District at Milton, Pa., on Thursday last. The number present was estimated at 6,000. A stand was erected on an island in the Susquehanna, near the town, where the immense host was addressed by John S. Richards, Esq., of Reading, Charles Gibbons, Esq., of Philadelphia, and the Buckeye Blacksmith. The greatest enthusiasm prevailed. The Lycoming Whigs contributed their share to the meeting. In one procession there were two hundred wagons loaded with good Whigs. The 13th District will this Fall do better than ever before.

WHIG MASS MEETING AT LEWISBURG, VA.—On Saturday, the 17th, the Whig Mass Meeting for Greenbrier took place at Lewisburg, and was attended by 800 or 1,000 persons, including 200 ladies. The Democratic party had been invited to participate in the discussion, but declined, overawed, probably, by the weight of metal on the Whig side. The meeting was addressed by John R. Cooke, William H. Macfarland, and Benjamin Watkins Leigh, of Richmond, by Gen. Dorman, of Rockbridge, James M. Laidley, Esq., of Kanawha, and Ballard Smith and Dr. Syme, of Greenbrier.

The Lewisburg Observer closes its narrative of the meeting with a claim of 350 Whig majority in Greenbrier.

A SCENE AT THE RED SULPHUR SPRINGS.—The following incident is related in the Charleston (Va.) Republican of the 20th instant:

"James M. Mason, of Winchester, in a political speech, the other day, at the Red Sulphur, stated that it was a fact well known in Washington, that when the Texas treaty was first sent to the Senate, there were 33 or 36 Senators in favor of its ratification. But on the publication of the dictator Clay's letter disapproving of annexation, 15 Senators turned right about at his word of command and went against the treaty, and only 18 Senators could be found to sustain the treaty on the final vote of ratification. At this moment, the Hon. Henry Johnston, U. S. Senator from Louisiana, who, it appears was unknown to the gentleman from Winchester, rose and demanded the speaker's authority. Mr. M. was quite dumfounded. Mr. Johnston went on to state that he was a member of the Senate, and that upon his responsibility as a Senator, and a man of honor, he declared that every Senator who had voted against the treaty had determined so to do before the appearance of Mr. Clay's or Mr. Van Buren's letter. Mr. Mason acknowledged that he had made the statement upon common rumor—he was happy to be corrected by the honorable gentleman. He then retired from the stand."

SANDS'S SARSAPARILLA.—The following certificate, recently received, was addressed to our agent in Madison, Ga. The patient was greatly afflicted with Scrofula and Mercurial sores; had tried various remedies without any benefit, and the afflicted are now invited to read what he says in reference to Sands's Sarsaparilla:

MADISON, Ga., Aug 5, 1844.

DEAR SIR:—As I have derived so much benefit from the use of Sands's Sarsaparilla, I feel it a duty I owe to the community, to make the fact in my case public. I was afflicted for four years with running sores and festid ulcers on my lower extremities, and also suffered severely from mercurial sores on other parts of my body, from the effect of blue pills and other mercurials. I tried remedy after remedy, but they all availed nothing, until I obtained a bottle of Sands's Sarsaparilla, which I found benefited me very much. I continued its use until I had taken eight bottles, when I was perfectly cured. Judging from my own case, I have reason to believe Sands's Sarsaparilla is the very best remedy for scrofula and mercurial sores there is; it entirely eradicates the poison from the system. After four years of almost continual suffering I now find myself a new man—entirely recovered. Yours respectfully,
WILLIAM BANKS.

Prepared and sold, wholesale and retail, by A. B. & D. SANDS, Wholesale Druggists, 79 Fulton st., New York. Price $1 per bottle; 6 bottles for $5. Agents for Washington city:—ROBERT FARNHAM, Bookseller, corner of Pennsylvania avenue and 11th street, and R. S. PATTERSON, Druggist, corner of Pennsylvania avenue and 9th street.

THE PICTORIAL HISTORY OF THE UNITED STATES.

WITH NOTICES of other portions of America, by S. G. Goodrich, author of Peter Parley's Tales, for the use of schools. The main purpose of the work is to furnish a full, accurate, and just history of the Western Continent, which may attract and render this subject a common school study throughout the land. While, therefore, it is full, in point of matter, it is so arranged as to be easily mastered by the pupil, and without excessive demands upon the attention of the teacher. It will be remarked that the work is largely illustrated with engravings of scenes and incidents, together with portraits, plans, and maps, designed to convey correct ideas of men and things, and at the same time taking care that the history shall be studied with accurate geographical notions.
Also, THE PICTORIAL HISTORY OF FRANCE, upon the same plan, and by the same author.

COAL! COAL!! COAL!!!
THE SUBSCRIBERS have now on hand, and will continue to receive, a superior article of ANTHRACITE COAL from John L. Butler & Co. This coal is mined near Wilkesbarre, Pennsylvania, and is known in this city as the celebrated Butler Coal, which has been highly recommended by all who have used it, as will be seen by the highly respectable certificates annexed:
I used coal last winter, which I purchased of Messrs. John Pettibone & Co., and it gave entire satisfaction.
W. SEATON.

PATENT OFFICE, May 31, 1844.
Gentlemen: The Coal that you furnished for the Patent Office during this last spring proved very excellent, and I used the same kind which was delivered at my house. It proved in both cases highly satisfactory.
H. L. ELLSWORTH.
Messrs. J. PETTIBONE & Co., Washington.

OFFICE SECRETARY SENATE, June 1, 1844.
Messrs. Pettibone & Co. furnished a small quantity of Coal for the furnaces of the north portion of the Capitol, and it was reported to be of a good quality. They also furnished at a reasonable price for my private use, during the last winter, several tons of the same kind of Coal, and I was entirely satisfied with it, finding but little dust from its use, and but little ash remaining than ashes, there being scarcely any clinker left. W. RICKEY.

WASHINGTON, June 25th, 1844.
Gentlemen: Having used your Coal, I can cheerfully recommend it as being of superior quality for easy ignition and culinary purposes.
Respectfully,
J. PETTIBONE & Co. WM. SKIRVING.

MAY 31, 1844.

W. LENOX.

MAY 25, 1844.
I purchased last year, from Messrs. John Pettibone & Co., what he called the Butler Coal. I never used a finer article of fuel. When I can find the Butler Coal, I shall not inquire for any other kind, for I am persuaded there is none better.
JAMES HOBAN.

DANVILLE, PENN. August 2, 1843.
I have bought of Messrs. Butler & Co. some hundred tons of their Anthracite Coal, and sold to persons for different uses, and used considerable of it myself. For burning in stoves and grates, I do pronounce it as good Coal as I ever have made use of; and every person to whom I have sold the Coal say they have never used anything they liked better.
JOHN C. GRIER.

We can produce many other certificates in accordance with the above.
